Detra Shaw-Wilder is a litigation partner at Kozyak Tropin & Throckmorton. She concentrates her practice in business law, complex commercial litigation, and borrowers in matters related to commercial financing transactions.

Ms. Shaw-Wilder represents a diverse range of clients in matters brought in state and federal courts, including contract disputes, commercial foreclosures, and employment law disputes. Having been involved in significant litigation, she has a broad range of trial experience in commercial cases. She has won recognition from her peers, professional and business publications, and others. Florida Trend magazine has recognized her as an “Up and Comer” in the South Florida legal community; she was named one of the most influential business people under the age of 40 by Network Miami Magazine; and South Florida CEO magazine has recognized her as a “Next Generation” leader. She has earned Martindale-Hubbell’s highest rating (AV).

In addition to participating in several panel discussions hosted by organizations such as the Florida Association of Women Lawyers and the University of Miami Center for Ethics and Public Service, Ms. Shaw-Wilder has been invited to speak before members of the National Law Institute and the Florida Association of Women Lawyers.

Ms. Shaw-Wilder earned her J.D. degree, cum laude, in 1994 from the University of Miami School of Law and became a member of the Inter-American Law Review and the International Moot Court Team Association. She earned her Bachelor’s degree from the University of Florida in 1990.
